KIDS' GRIEF AND HEALING

2025

Our Kids' Grief and Healing programming provides community and creative healing to youth in need, whether or not a loved one died in hospice care. The journey through grief and loss may be difficult and lonely, especially for children and adolescents who are sometimes forgotten grievers. They need a safe place to express the sadness, anger, and fear related to loss—thereby developing important coping skills. Through our Journeys camps, Oasis teen groups, and other creative expression programs, we help young people (4-18) forge connections with others, understand grief, and find that they are not alone.

HOW KIDS' GRIEF AND HEALING HELPS CHILDREN, TEENS, AND FAMILIES

- Provides individual and group grief support for children and teens facilitated by bereavement counselors.
- Offers camps and family events several times a year, including support for parents/guardians.
- Uses a variety of creative methods to help children and teens express their feelings, remember their person, and build coping skills.

The Kids' Grief and Healing program is made possible thanks to generous community philanthropy.
